To Whom it May Concern:

The ACCREDITED MANAGEMENT ORGANIZATION® accreditation remains the only recognition of excellence awarded to real estate management firms. With only 550 AMO® Firms in the world, you know you've chosen the best of the best.

AMO® Firms must demonstrate today's best practices in real estate management – and must continue to keep current in order to pass a rigorous, ongoing reaccreditation process. Scrupulously enforced by IREM, firms must also abide by a strict code of professional ethics. Every requirement in place for the AMO® accreditation exists to ensure that AMO® Firms are trained and prepared to advance an owner's goals while maximizing their investments with the utmost integrity, efficiency and knowledge.

Nearly half of AMO Firms have been in business for more than 20 years, and more than 80 percent have been established for at least a decade. These aren't fly-by-night organizations; AMO Firms are in it for the long haul, and will do whatever it takes to protect your investment.

Every AMO Firm must have a CERTIFIED PROPERTY MANAGER® (CPM®) in an executive position. With the leadership of a CPM®, you can rest assured that you're in the hands of an expert who has gone through extensive education to learn every skill necessary to navigate the complex, constantly changing world of portfolio management.

When you're hiring a real estate management firm, you want a company with honesty and professional integrity. A firm with not only the experience and knowledge of local markets, but also the analytical problem solving, budgeting and marketing skills needed to get the job done. AMO® Firms deliver on all those fronts and more.

Sincerely,

Lori Burger, CPM®
